

CHANGE PLEA TO "NOT GUILTY"

Surprise Sprung In "Cold Check" Cases When Hubert McCall's Case Is Called In Court.

The "cold check" cases took a surprising turn when circuit court was reconvened this afternoon. Hubert McCall, who was indicted in two cases, withdrew his plea of not guilty, made at his examining trial, and on previous arraignment before this court, and entered a plea of not guilty. The charge against him will therefore, be tried out on its merits.

There was some delay in securing a jury. The regular panel was exhausted before 12 men could be found who had not formed and expressed an opinion in the case. Most of those who were excused, said that they had heard the cases talked of or had read of it in the newspapers.

It was three o'clock before the jury was finally completed, and attorneys began statements of the case. McCall is charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses from Hamilton Bros., of this city, by giving them a check on the State Bank & Trust Co., of this city, when he had no funds therein. The check was for $44.50 and was in payment for some shoes and a suit he bought from them, it is alleged, under the alias of Charley Johnson, the name that is signed to the check.

The court room was packed again to its capacity this afternoon, when the cases were called. Hubert McCall and his wife, Alice McCall, who is also under indictment on a similar charge, sat behind their attorneys.

They had their two babies in their laps. One is a little boy of two years and the other is a little girl of four. Both slept in their parents' arms, wholly unaware of the serious predicament that they faced. The mother cried all during the examination of the jury. Judge H. C. Rice, of this city, is sitting with the counsel for the defendants, during this trial.

The statements of attorneys to the jury was beginning as the Daily Register's report for today closed.

Coy Hutton Given Three Years

Coy Hutton was given three years in the penitentiary by a jury in circuit court this morning on his plea of guilty of having given a fraudulent check for $44 to Hamilton Bros. of this city, for goods obtained. Hutton's case was the first of the four "cold checks" cases to be given to a jury for judgment, when the trials of the indictments against them were called by Judge Shackelford this morning. There is one other indictment against Hutton; in fact, two against each of the defendants, the others being Hutton's wife, and Hubert and Alice McCall. Judge Shackelford passed hearing of the other cases until after dinner, as the attorneys were engaged in lengthy conferences.

An immense crowd was in the circuit court room when these cases were called this morning. No case in some time has attracted so much interest. It is understood that an effort is being made to have the two men tried, and the cases against their wives continued if possible. One of the women has a four-months' old baby, it is claimed, and the other has two very small children. In addition to this plea, which is being made by the attorneys for the defense, it is claimed that the two families have out a large crop of tobacco, which will be utterly lost if all are sent to the penitentiary.

The four defendants appeared in court this morning when their names were called, and thus upset predictions of many that they would forfeit their $4,000 bond, and skip out rather than face certain penitentiary terms. They were represented by an array of able counsel. In addition to Attorney A. R. Burnam, Jr., of this city, Attorney Mat Walton, of Lexington, again appeared for them and these two very prominent lawyers were assisted by County Attorney W. E. Baxter, of Jessamine county.

A former demurrer to the indictment was entered by Attorney Burnam, but promptly overruled by the court. Hubert McCall then signed an affidavit setting forth grounds for a continuance of the cases outlined above.

REFUSES BIG OFFER FOR DERBY WINNER

(By Associated Press) Lexington, Ky., May 27—Commander J. K. L. Ross, the Canadian turfman, refused an offer from John E. Madden to purchase Sir Barton, winner of the Kentucky Derby, for $50,000, it was announced at Madden's office here today. Madden bred Sir Barton and sold him as a two-year-old to Ross for $15,000.

SAYS MORE BIG SHIPS NOT NEEDED

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 27—It would be inadvisable to authorize the construction of more capital ships than are included in the navy's 1916 building program, Secretary Daniels said today, testifying before the House Naval Affairs Committee. He said that since the United States initiated the League of Nations it should show "confidence in that covenant" by not authorizing at this time ten battleships and ten scout cruisers as proposed several months ago by the Navy Department.

YOUNG ALEXANDER WEDS STAR ACTRESS

(By Associated Press) Louisville, Ky., May 27—"He just nosed me out," said Clifton Rhodes, of this city, when he read today of the marriage of Kenneth D. Alexander, the young Woodford county millionaire, and Miss Molly King, musical comedy and screen actress, in New York. Alexander owns Escoba the widely known race horse, and the beaten favorite in the 1918 Kentucky Derby. Rhodes and Alexander are boon companions. Rhodes will be married to Miss Helen Hickman, of Louisville, in the fall.

Walter Blevins Acquitted

While waiting for the lawyers in the cold check cases to argue various points, Judge Shackelford called for trials of a number of smaller cases on the criminal docket. The Judge brooks no delay and he keeps things moving all the time. Walter Blevins was acquitted by a jury on a charge of pointing a pistol at Jas. Rucker. The offense is alleged to have occurred in 1916. Blevins said that he had an unloaded pistol in his hands, but that he was trying to prevent Rucker from hitting him with a stick.

GIRLS WIN SUIT FROM LEXINGTON HERALD

Young Misses Mary Bronston and Lou Wells, of Richmond, won a hard-fought suit in quarterly court yesterday which had been brought against them by the Lexington Herald Company. The two young ladies for some time acted as local agents for the Herald, and their rain and snow last winter faithfully carried their "routes" and built up a nice clientele for that paper. Often the papers missed getting here on time, it seems, and at other times, extra papers were sent over, some of which were not sold. The young ladies claimed that when they made final settlement for their papers they owed the Lexington Herald Company $29. On the other hand, the Herald Company claimed they owed something like $127.

The young girls said that the agents for the Lexington paper had told them they would not have to pay for "extras" which were not sold, and would not have to pay for papers when they missed train connections and did not arrive in time to be of use to readers. However, the Herald asked that they pay for these papers. Attorney W. B. Walden, of Berea, represented the Herald Company, while half a dozen or so local attorneys volunteered to defend the young ladies, including Joe P. Chenault, O. P. Jackson, Judge H. C. Rice and others. Two or three bookkeepers and agents for the Herald were here to testify against the little girls, and the case was hard-fought all day before a jury in Judge Price's court. The jury remained out only a few minutes, however, and brought in a verdict for the settlement as claimed by the young ladies in every particular, and they were loudly congratulated by their many friends who were crowding the court room upon the victory they had won.

TO REPEAL LUXURY TAXES VERY SOON

EUBANK GOES TO PEN

Gov. Stanley refused to pardon Porter C. Eubank, who was tried and sentenced by a Madison county jury in the Montgomery circuit court last year, and he was taken to the penitentiary last week. The Mt. Sterling Democrat said of the case: Porter C. Eubank, who in December of 1917, shot and killed Henry M. Ringe in the latter's place of business, following an argument over change and who was later convicted and sentenced to serve ten years in prison, was taken to Frankfort Wednesday morning to begin his term. Since the killing, Eubank has been confined in the county jail here. Following the conviction, a new trial was asked and refused by Judge Young and an appeal was made to the Court of Appeals. The higher court affirmed the case and as a final effort relatives and friends brought strong pressure to bear upon Gov. Stanley to grant him a full pardon or to commute his sentence to a shorter term. A strong delegation of local people, representing both sides, went to Frankfort to confer with the governor and present their respective views on the matter. It appears that the delegation protesting against any executive clemency being shown the convicted man, won their point, for Governor Stanley failed to take any action in the matter before leaving for Washington to take oath of office as United States Senator.

HAWKER TELLS OF TROUBLE ON FLIGHT

(By Associated Press) Edinburgh, Scotland, May 27—Harry G. Hawker and Lieutenant Commander Mackenzie Grieve arrived here today on their way to London. They received a great ovation. Describing his flight, Hawker recounted their efforts to dislodge the obstruction in the radiator during the flight, by pointing the nose of the airplane downward. They succeeded once but later the engine became heated and they cruised across the ship lane, finally sighting a vessel which rescued them.

REPARATION QUESTION DELAYS AUSTRIAN TREATY

(By Associated Press) Paris, May 26—It is probable that presentation of the peace terms to the Austrian delegation will be delayed until next week, according to Reuters Limited. The subject of reparation is said to be the main cause of the delay with the probability that the powers may relieve the states formerly within the Austro-Hungarian empire and now liberated, from bear their proportionate share of the reparation payments.

THURSDAY, JUNE 5

DATE OF BIG SALE

Here it is.

Rose Dale, the beautiful new sub-division will be opened to the public on Thursday, June 5th.

The Wakefield-Davis Realty Company today announce the date of their big sale, which has been awaited with so much interest all over this section. The date is only a little over a week off, but by that time the beautiful tract will have been graded and divided into the most attractive of building lots, so that those who often visited the historic place when it overflowed with the bounteous hospitality of the Letchers and Capertons, will hardly recognize it now.

The sale is scheduled according to announcement in Daily Register today to begin at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. This early opening hour is selected in order that there may be ample time to dispose of the entire block of 87 lots without undue hurry. Re-cess will be taken at the noon hour for luncheon, which will be served by the ladies of the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary in cafeteria style. This assures everyone that a most appetizing lunch will be had, and will be a decided feature of a day that promises to be one of the biggest known in this section in a long time.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

"I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head."

"I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties."

"I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it cured me of those awful headaches. I have been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui."

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made them medicine ingredients recommended by medical experts as being of benefit in all cases of nervousness and 40 years of use has proved that the facts are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-124

GRAND SALE of LOTS

In Beautiful Rose Dale Park

THE NEW ADDITION TO RICHMOND KENTUCKY
87 BEAUTIFUL BUILDING LOTS 87
The Letcher Home and Pontrich Greenhouses

AT PUBLIC AUCTION

Thurs. June 5th, 1919 9:30 sharp

ROSE DALE PARK

The very appropriate name selected for this Grand Addition with its magnificent shade, pretty flowers and shrubbery is famous throughout the state for its beauty, and we considered ourselves fortunate indeed, when we were able to get a price on it. We know of no other place so well located or adapted to the purpose of building sites and one has only to look it over to wish his home might be located right there.

RICHMOND

Is widely known as one of the very best towns of the state, lying as it does right in the Blue Grass, yet being the logical gateway to the mountains and is bound to be a much larger city for with the fabulous wealth coming in now from the mountains, and on the other side the great crops from the magnificent farming lands there is bound to be more wealth in Richmond than has ever been known before. Her fame is already widespread on account of her financial institutions, her splendid tobacco markets, her culture and wealth and educational facilities that are unsurpassed.

A HOME

Affords an opportunity seldom offered to buy at your own price a home of such elegance and renown. It has been thoroughly modernized throughout with city water, hot water heat, gas, etc. This home is undoubtedly one of the choicest in Richmond and those seeking the ideal comfort place will find it here. The Greenhouses and flower gardens which are an established paying proposition, will also be sold. Luncheon will be served Cafeteria Style by ladies of P. A. C. Infirmary.

WANTEN? OBEY THAT IMPULSE! Buy now, the time was never better. Why rent? Don't be a "wish I had" when you can buy at your own price and on such easy terms.

For the day attractive to those attending the sale, we will GIVE AWAY ONE LOT VALUED AT $750.00 and other valuable presents. Each white person on the ground at 10 o'clock gets a CHANCE of them. You don't have to buy any thing or even bid on anything to get these chances, but just be with us at that time and hunt for Rose Dale Park. Ladies especially invited.
